New Truck Already A'rollin'

Thanks to a generous grant from the Walmart Foundation and the dedication of our state representatives, AOI has been able to purchase a new 14' truck.

The Walmart Foundation provided AOI with a $25,000 grant in 2009 to purchase the truck and our senators and delegates provided $15,000 in state funds for the truck purchase and also for a new photocopier which will reduce our office costs. We bought the truck at Whiteside at a great price through Brian McCulley.

The new truck is already on the road making deliveries throughout the state. Because of high mileage our old 14-footer will be maintained to handle our local pick-ups only.

Book Fair for AOI at Books-A-Million

On Saturday, Aug. 14, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Books-A-Million at the Highlands will host a Book Fair for AOI. Stop and see our booth while shopping. When purchasing gift certificates, books or other items, tell the cashier you support AOI and we receive 10% of the sale.

Hoss's Community Day

Hoss's in Elm Grove is holding a community day on Sunday, Aug. 15, to support AOI. When purchasing gift certificates or having a meal, present a coupon that we provide.

Help us maximize our opportunity. If Hoss's reaches $1,200 in sales, we will receive 25% of the amount rather than the normal 20% donation. Look for coupons in your local church or call us.

New Board Member

In July AOI welcomed Carrie Byrum, Executive Director of the Y.W.C.A. in Wheeling, as our newest new board member. With her great experience serving women in need, Carrie will be a voice for the underprivileged on our board. Welcome, Carrie!

Jamboree Follow-Up

A flood the prior night may have forced us into St. Jude Hall but it did not dampen the enthusiasm for our Country-Bluegrass Jamboree. We raised over $5,700. Thank you to our donors, sponsors, and volunteers who helped make the event a success. Mark your calendars for next year's Jamboree on Sun., June 5, 2011.

& AOI

Whether rich or poor, or somewhere in between, you can make a meaningful gift to charity. A simple directive in your will can bring welcome support to Appalachian Outreach which makes a difference in many lives. When making funeral arrangements for a deceased loved one or looking for a meaningful birthday present, please consider AOI as your charity of choice. For more information, go to www.lalwv.org.

Special recognition to Senators Jeff Kessler and Larry Edgell and Delegates Scott Varner and Mike Ferro for securing state funding to support AOI over the last three years, including $15,000 to purchase our new truck and photocopier. Thank you for helping us serve our neighbors in need!

More Flooding in WV

More flooding has devastated southern West Virginia. Furniture, housewares, bedding and infantwear are in dire need. At this time, please no adult clothing, books or knick-knacks. Suggestions for activity: host an (new) underwear drive. Don't forget we're now collecting toys, Golden Books, primary school books (no text books), games, puzzles, bikes, sporting goods, etc.

Mark your calendars...

- Aug. 15: Community Day at Hoss's. See page 1.
- Nov. 4: Celebrity Server Night from 4-9 p.m. at Ponderosa in Glen Dale. More details will follow.
- Nov. 14: Community Day at Bob Evans on National Road in Wheeling.
- Date TBD for an upcoming Gold Party.

AOI Storehouse

The AOI Storehouse is in full swing. We're receiving new deliveries of kitchen and bathroom cabinets (sold as set or separately), Simonton windows, ceramic floor tiles, louver doors, bath tubs, shower units, handicapped accessible sinks and hand rails, etc.

Call for an appointment or watch for upcoming announcements on new storehouse hours.

Shoebox Santa Kick-Off

Shoebox Santas go to elderly or disabled adults and are often the only Christmas gift they receive. AOI needs funds to purchase supplies at discount or on sale. As your church or community groups plan fall meetings, consider preparing shoe boxes. Give us a call to schedule a time to come to the warehouse to have a pack 'n' wrap party, or schedule your own and bring in your completed boxes.
