Musicfest-14

Mark your calendars Sunday, June 1, for the 6th annual AOI fundraiser, Musicfest-14, at St. Jude Hall in Glen Dale.

The event, formerly known as the "Country-Bluegrass Jamboree," runs noon to 5pm and features music by National Pike Pickers, Stevie Lynn, Dan

Henthorne and the Battle Weary Band, and Hank Vincent and the Jay Marsh Band.

$10 admission is required (kids 5 and under are free), which includes a spaghetti dinner.

The day also includes a bake sale, raffles and a silent auction, with a special feature being the West Virginia Music Hall of Fame Exhibit.

Tickets are available at Moundsville Pharmacy, Quality Bakery and Marshall County Chamber of Commerce, or see any board member or AOI. Call 304-845-2762.

Thank you to our sponsors, especially Glessner & Associates and Wesbanco.

$66.5K Grant for AOI

The Christian Foundation has just blessed AOI a $66,500 grant which will be used to upgrade our computer systems, purchase a scanning system for the Storehouse and purchase Christian materials for the CHRISTmas Gift Project (formerly Shoebox Santas) and Baby Bonus Baskets. Some funding has also been allocated to augment executive director and general manager wages. Thanks to the Christian Foundation for their consideration and support of Appalachian Outreach and our mission.
