Greetings Everyone!

As we prepare to celebrate this Christmas Season, I am reminded a lot about all the struggles that we are dealing with, especially those who are alone or challenged materially and / or financially.

The tree is a reminder of how we are all interwoven into one big family, each of us with our special place as part of the tree. Maybe we are a special ornament that brings joy to others or lights radiating through our lives. I think all of us are elves at one time or another. As elves we bring an assortment of gifts to all we meet.

This is what Appalachian Outreach has been about for the past 20 years and will continue to do going forward. During 2021 AOI has expanded its reach locally by networking with other nonprofits and by working on grants to improve the facilities we use. AOI has been able to provide necessary items to people in need and affordable items to those with limited means.

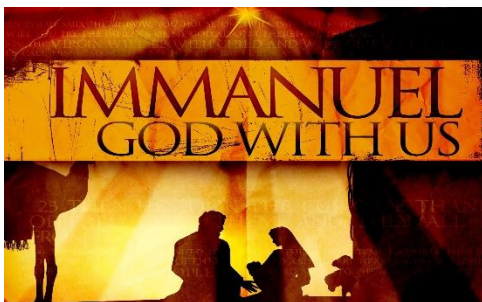

What makes this work, is each of you being part of our tree decorating it with your uniqueness and brilliance. You, our staff, supporters, donors, and volunteers are the elves that sort, clean, pack and prepare items as needed.

Times are challenging for us as well. AOI needs your support in a variety of ways to continue meeting life's challenges. Please see page three for a suggestion of what a dollar can do. We also welcome you to use your talents as a volunteer.

As we work together, we become God's presence in our neighborhoods and in the world.

Together we can make a difference for those who need us the most!

Peace and Joy to You and Yours,

Rose Hart
